Obituary

Harold Lewis Lloyd was born in Atlanta, GA on March 14, 1943, to Milton and Cornelia Lloyd. He grew up in Richmond and attended Richmond Union High School. Harold accepted Christ and was baptized at Ennis Chapel in Richmond, CA.

Harold had a generous spirit. He loved helping people in the time of need. Harold had a great sense of humor and loved to laugh. He enjoyed listening to music and watching old movies. Harold was also passionate about cooking. He loved grocery shopping and would not hesitate to call a family member at 6am Saturday morning to take him grocery shopping. He would say, "Yea, I need you to be here around 8 am."

He worked as a forklift driver with American National Can and Certain Teed Company. When his mother became ill and stricken with a stroke Harold became one of his mother's primary caregivers in 1991.

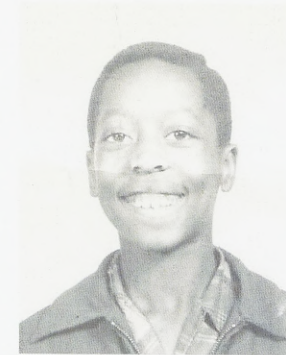

Harold departed this life on January 26, 2012. Preceding him in death were his father and mother; brother Fred Lloyd Sr.; nephews Frederick Lloyd, Jr., and Gary "Papa" Lloyd, Jr.. He is survived by brothers Hakeem Uqdah (Linda), Gary Lloyd (Frances); sisters Carolyn Demby (Alfonzo), Valerie Lloyd; one Aunt Mary Maddox of Philadelphia, PA and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

God's Promise:

God never promised a life without pain,
Laughter without tears or sun without rain.
But He did promise strength for the day,
Comfort for the tears and the light for the way,
And for all who believe In His Heaven above
He rewards their faith In His everlasting love.
